SCIENTIFIC RATIONAL

Systemic sclerosis is a complex autoimmune disease requiring a multidisciplinary and translational approach to improve early diagnosis, risk stratification, and treatment strategies. This meeting brings together leading international experts from the NEOSS network and the World Scleroderma Foundation to discuss cutting-edge advances in disease mechanisms, from autoantibodies and fibrosis to vascular and gastrointestinal involvement. Particular focus will be given to innovative tools for PAH screening, novel biomarkers, and emerging therapeutic approaches including antifibrotic strategies, bispecific antibodies, and CAR-T cell therapies. The program is designed to foster scientific exchange and integrate clinical and experimental insights, with the ultimate goal of improving patient outcomes in systemic sclerosis.
